

Call for Papers

European Conference on Mediation in Cross-Border Succession Cases

26th June 2019 in Leipzig (Germany)

- Deadline: 30th October, 2018 -

FOMENTO (Fostering mediation in cross-border civil and succession matters) is an EU-funded project that analyses the implementation of the European Succession Regulation (No 650/2012) and the Mediation Directive (2008/52/EC). The main focus lays on supporting mediation in the field of cross-border succession conflicts.

We would like to invite you to take part and participate in the conference on 26th June, 2019 in Leipzig (Germany). At this conference the outcomes of FOMENTO research study will be presented and furthermore citizens and professionals shall get insights about the specifics of cross-border succession conflicts and the possibilities of mediation in this field.

Therefore, we are looking for mediators and legal practitioners, academics, policymakers and others that are competent in this field of action: You are welcome to send in your proposal as a contributor for workshops or lectures for the final conference. Each workshop can last either 1½, 3 or 5 hours and can be held in English or German. The papers will be reviewed by the project partners of FOMENTO, which are:
